DuPage County Zoning Board to Consider COD Requests

Glen Ellyn, IL - The DuPage County Zoning Board of Appeals will conduct a Public Hearing regarding the request by the College of DuPage for four conditional use approvals on Thursday, May 10, 2012 at 6:00 p.m. The hearing will be held in Room 3500-B of the Jack T. Knuepfer Administration Building, 421 N. County Farm Road, Wheaton, IL 60187. The public is welcome to attend. The hearing will cover the College of DuPage's conditional use requests for 1). A Planned Development 2). Noncommercial radio and television towers and antennas that exceed maximum zoning district height 3). An institution of higher learning use within an R-1 District and 4). Electronic message signs. Comments may be submitted via email to Paul.Hoss@dupageco.org or via facsimile at 630.407.6702 before May 9.

The College of DuPage is located in the Village of Glen Ellyn. DuPage County has jurisdiction over these matters due to an Intergovernmental Agreement between COD, the Village of Glen Ellyn, and the County executed earlier this year. The County is required to notify the Village of all future plans on the campus and the Village is able to comment and voice concerns at the public meetings, as are all residents of the County and Village.
