THREAT INVESTIGATION AT GLENBARD WEST HIGH SCHOOL

Glen Ellyn Police, in conjunction with staff at Glenbard West High School, initiated an investigation today into allegations that threats of violence against students were made by another student through social media. The investigation swiftly led officers to conclude that there was no danger to students or staff at Glenbard West High School. Currently, there have been no arrests made in conjunction with this incident. While officers will continue to follow up on this case and provide a strong presence at the school, classes will be in session tomorrow.

Glen Ellyn Police Chief Philip Norton said, "The Glen Ellyn Police and staff at Glenbard West will remain steadfast in investigating allegations like these to ensure the safety of the Glenbard West community. Thank you to the individuals who had the awareness to come forward and report this situation."

No further information is available at this time.
